Welcome to GUINNESS HURLING CUBED™

Guinness Hurling Cubed is an exciting and entertaining new hurling experience, taking place in four GAA communities across Ireland.

Developed by Guinness, in association with former Cork Hurling Manager Donal O'Grady, Guinness Hurling Cubed is a 3-a-side, 3 minute game that is played with specially designed 21" hurleys and a soft sliothar, all within the confines of a 10 metre by 4 metre Perspex cube.

The Guinness Hurling Cubed Cushendall Invitational is taking place on Friday 2nd October 2009 and Saturday 3rd October 2009 at Páirc Mhuire, Ruairí Óg CLG, with teams from GAA clubs in the surrounding communities invited to take part and represent their club.

Entry for all players and spectators is free. All players and spectators must be over 18 years old.

For further information, to get involved and to enter a team contact your club representative below or email: guinnesshurling@ihurling.com.
